

One-Day Excursion to Asni and Imlil

Description:

From Marrakech, embark with us on a one-day excursion that will take you to discover Asni and Imlil. Come explore this truly magnificent natural landscape and learn more about the local culture.

PROGRAM:

The itinerary of your trip to discover Asni and Imlil

Your excursion will begin with a pickup from your place of residence in Marrakech; our driver will pick you up to take you to the Atlas Mountains.

The first stop of your excursion will be in Asni. Here, you will have the opportunity to observe a large variety of different vegetation, rocks, streams, and Berber villages. If you take this excursion on a Tuesday or Saturday, you will be able to visit the souks of Asni and Tahanaout. This will be an excellent opportunity for you to discover the work of local artisans and also to take photos of these lively traditional markets.

After this stop in Asni, you will continue your journey to Imlil. It is a truly exceptional place. Nature photography lovers will feast their eyes on these beautiful landscapes. With your guide, you will go hiking to discover Imlil and also meet the inhabitants of the surrounding Berber villages. For about two hours, you will walk through original settings, and you will also pass at the foot of Mount Toubkal, which is considered the highest peak in North Africa. At the end of your hike, our driver will take you back to your place of residence.
