

Ideal 7-Day Tour from Casablanca

Description

Book this unforgettable 7-day tour from Casablanca to Marrakech and discover Morocco's most captivating destinations, including the imperial cities of Marrakech, Fes, Rabat, and Meknes, as well as the enchanting Merzouga desert. You will experience an unforgettable camel trekking adventure through the impressive dunes of Erg Chebbi, spending a night surrounded by nature. Continue your journey towards Meknes and Volubilis, where you will be amazed by the breathtaking landscapes of the Rif Mountains and explore the must-see sites of Meknes, such as Bab Mansour, the Mausoleum of Mohammed V, and the Roman ruins of Volubilis. Finally, immerse yourself in a full-day tour of Fes and discover the city's fascinating attractions, such as the Mellah, the tanneries, the madrasas, and the Royal Palace.

Next, continue your journey through Ifrane and the cedar forest—the largest in Morocco—descend into the Ziz Valley, and reach the Merzouga desert. In Merzouga, enjoy an extraordinary camel ride through the Sahara dunes, where you will discover spectacular landscapes. The following day, continue your route towards the Todra Gorges, the Dades Valley, and Skoura, famous for its thousand kasbahs. Then visit the Ouarzazate film studios and the historic Kasbah of Ait Ben Haddou, a UNESCO World Heritage site, before crossing the High Atlas Mountains. Stop at the Tizi n'Tichka pass. In the late afternoon, arrival in Marrakech and transfer to the airport.

Day 1: Casablanca – Rabat – Chefchaouen:

In the morning, our driver will pick you up at the airport or your hotel in Casablanca to begin your tour with the Hassan II Mosque, the second largest in Africa, capable of accommodating up to 100,000 worshippers. The mosque is adorned with magnificent patterns. Next, we will head to Rabat, admiring the breathtaking landscapes along the way. Upon arrival in Rabat, the capital of Morocco, we will visit the Hassan Tower, the Mausoleum of Mohammed V, and the Kasbah of the Oudayas. After lunch, we will cross the Rif Mountains, enjoying the superb scenery and discovering the charm of the blue city of Chefchaouen. Nestled in the heart of the Rif Mountains and surrounded by oak and pine trees, we will visit the old medina of Chefchaouen, stroll through its blue-walled alleys, and learn all about the city's history. Walking through the blue-painted streets and alleys of Chefchaouen is a unique experience. The vibrant colors of the buildings and the colorful doors and windows create a magical and peaceful atmosphere. Finally, visit the Spanish Mosque of Chefchaouen, which offers a magnificent panorama of the blue city. Transfer to your accommodation for the night.

Day 2: Chefchaouen – Fes:

After breakfast at your accommodation in Chefchaouen, we will cross the Rif Mountains heading towards Fes, reaching Ouazzane. You will have the opportunity to admire the magnificent landscapes of the Rif, aiming to arrive in Fes in the afternoon. On the way, we will stop at Volubilis, a Roman site listed as a UNESCO World Heritage site. We will then continue our route to Meknes, where we will have lunch before visiting the remarkable Bab Mansour gate, a majestic entrance located in the old city. You will then discover the Mausoleum of Moulay Ismail. Upon arrival in Fes, you will be transferred to your accommodation for the night.

Day 3: Fes Full-Day Sightseeing Tour:

After breakfast, you will meet your private guide for a guided tour of Fes, the first imperial city of Morocco. A UNESCO World Heritage site, this city was founded in the 9th century and is home to the oldest university in the world. The first stop of the morning will be the entrance to the largest Royal Palace in Morocco. Then, we will admire a breathtaking panoramic view of the entire medina from the South Tower of Fes, followed by a visit to a pottery cooperative where Moroccan tiles and mosaics are made. We will also visit the tanneries and watch local artisans work with animal skins such as goat, camel, and cow. We will explore a Madrasa (Quranic school), the Nejjarine Fountain, the Mausoleum of Moulay Idriss, and the Al Karaouine Mosque-University. You will have lunch in a traditional Moroccan restaurant in the medina. In the afternoon, you will continue your exploration of the medina and its narrow alleys, where hundreds of merchants and artisans offer a wide variety of products such as dates, fish, spices, copper vases, and musical instruments. In the late afternoon, transfer to your accommodation where you will spend the night.

Day 4: Fes – Ifrane – Cedar Forest – Merzouga Desert:

In the morning, after breakfast at your accommodation in Fes, we will cross the Middle Atlas with a stop in Ifrane, a charming ski resort nicknamed the "Little Switzerland of Morocco." You will have a coffee break and visit the Atlas Lion statue before reaching the cedar forest, the largest in Morocco. Here, you will observe Barbary macaque monkeys and discover picturesque Berber villages. You will have the opportunity to feed them and take great photos. Lunch in the magnificent town of Midelt, nestled between the Middle and High Atlas, where you will enjoy a stunning view of the eastern High Atlas. You will then discover the legendary Ziz Valley, winding along a deep canyon to Erfoud, the capital of dates.

In the late afternoon, arrival in the Merzouga desert where you will meet your camel guide. You will then set off for a camel trek through the dunes, enjoying the beautiful landscapes. Stop to watch the sunset, then continue to your camp, where you will spend the night in the heart of the desert, enjoying a unique evening with drum music around the campfire.

Day 5: Merzouga – Todra Gorges – Dades Gorges:

In the morning, wake up to admire a breathtaking sunrise over the dunes of Merzouga, a spectacle that offers an exceptional start to the day. After breakfast at your desert camp, marvel at the breathtaking landscapes of the Sahara. We will then depart for Tinghir via Jorf, enjoying magnificent views of the Tafilalt oasis along the way. We will pass through Berber villages. Stop in Melaab, where you will have the opportunity to try on a Berber wedding dress and get a henna tattoo, the traditional Moroccan tattoo (optional). Arrival at the Todra Gorges, the highest and narrowest in Morocco, an ideal spot for rock climbers. You will have free time to stroll along the riverbanks. We will then reach the Dades Gorges to admire the spectacular sand castles, visit a rock formation called the "Monkey Fingers," and take the winding road of Tisadrine where you will contemplate a magnificent sunset. Transfer to your accommodation for the night in the Dades Valley.

Day 6: Dades Gorges – Ait Ben Haddou – Marrakech:

In the morning, continue your 7-day tour from Casablanca to Marrakech by taking the Road of a Morocco All Desert Tours

Thousand Kasbahs. You will pass through Kalaat M'gouna, the City of Roses, where you will visit a local cosmetic cooperative (optional stop). Next, head towards the Valley of Roses, offering magnificent photo opportunities. A stop in Skoura will allow you to discover the Kasbah Amridil, one of the oldest in the region. The journey continues towards Ouarzazate, where we will stop to visit the film studios and the Kasbah of Taourirt.

In the late afternoon, departure for the Kasbah of Ait Ben Haddou, a UNESCO World Heritage site famous for its majestic setting which has served as a backdrop for numerous films such as Gladiator, Game of Thrones, and The Mummy. We will then continue our 7-day tour crossing the Tizi n'Tichka pass (2,260 m). On the road to Marrakech, you will enjoy stunning views of the High Atlas, with a stop at the summit of the Tizi n'Tichka pass for exceptional photo sessions. We will then reach Marrakech. In the late afternoon, you will be dropped off at your accommodation where you will spend the night.
